Message from Honda Malaysia

Welcome to the first issue of With Dreams in 2017 and we hope you had an inspiring start. The year opened remarkably well for us as we managed to exceed the sales target for 2016 and maintain our No. 1 position in the Non-National segment for the second consecutive year. This steered us towards a breakthrough and for the first time, we rank No. 2 in total industry volume.

There are more reasons for us to celebrate, as our 10th Generation Civic not only gained 68% market share within six months of its launch last year, but the Honda Civic 1.5 TC also won 3 awards last year, namely Malaysia Car Of the Year, Family Sedan of the Year and First Runner-up ASEAN Car of the Year. The achievements are really encouraging and prove the reliability of Honda's technologies.

In other good news, our extremely versatile 7-Seater Crossover, the All-New BRV, has just been added to our line-up. In a historical milestone event, it was launched simultaneously in Kuala Lumpur and Kota Kinabalu on the same day and at the same time to extend our reach to customers.

Following the BR-V's strong start is the City's highly anticipated facelift. The New City comes with sportier exterior upgrades and advanced features inside while maintaining its outstanding fuel efficiency. We hope that car buyers will find the enhanced City a valuable and desirable choice.

This year, we are also equally excited to bring more innovative approaches towards enhancing our customers' experience with Honda. Whether it is in Sales or After Sales, we aim to stay engaged and provide best-in-class services to every customer. Do also keep an eye on our upcoming road shows and activities.

Thank you for trusting us and we strive to bring greater improvements to serve you better.

En. Roslan Abdullah
Chief Operating Officer

Sungai Lembing, Pahang Over the Rainbow

Once the richest town in colonial Pahang during its tin-mining glory days, Sungai Lembing's silent streets today echo the demise of the town following the collapse of global tin prices in 1986. But as not-so-silent tour guides will tell you, it's home to some of the most exciting tourist attractions in the country: abandoned tin mines—the longest and deepest in the world, ethereal waterfalls, great food, fantastic resorts, breezy hiking trails, and rainbows on schedule.

RAINBOW WATERFALL

This waterfall got its name from the spectacular rainbow that appears at its base around 9am every morning as the sun's rays hit the water. Tours to the falls begin at 6am, starting with an hour-long drive through the jungle and a 45-minute hike. Past the slippery streams and rocks, you may see more than one misty rainbow before it disappears.

TIN MINES

Take an eerie stroll through the once bustling tin mines that earned Sungai Lembing its former 'El Dorado of the East' nickname. With interconnected tunnels almost 700 meters deep and 320 kilometres long, the mine was once hailed the second richest tin deposit in the world and till today remains an iconic relic of Pahang's former economic dominance.

CLIMB PANORAMA HILL

A beautiful hill that stands 291 meters above sea level, Panorama Hill is the spot to go for a dazzling view of the sunrise and the surrounding greenery in the early morning. It takes about 45 minutes to climb the concrete steps and the mountain trail leading to the top.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE

South of Sungai Lembing is the hundred-year-old suspension bridge near Kolong Pahat village. It's anything but a steady walk from start to finish, but still an ideal spot from which to photograph the river and the old town.

OTHER MUST-SEE ATTRACTIONS

- Sungai Lembing Museum: Examine original tin mining equipment used long ago.
- 3D Gallery in Sungai Lembing: Perspective-shifting artwork that will turn your head.
- Crystal House: Browse through 3,000 crystals and man-made tin mine tunnels.

COCONUT BISCUITS ●

A roasted coconut wafer that leaves visitors stocking up on more, this beloved coconut biscuit snack is found in most markets and bakeries around Sungai Lembing town.

MEE JAWA ●

This dish combines blanched noodles in a light tomato broth with sweet potato, tofu, boiled eggs, prawns, vegetables and a touch of lime juice for tang. The food court at the entrance to Sungai Lembing town is said to serve excellent Mee Jawa.

TOFU AND TOFU FA

Sungai Lembing's San Sui tofu (mountain water tofu) and tofu fa boast a rich taste and a silky smooth texture that's unique to the food in this town. Tofu is sliced into bricks that are charred at the base and dunked in a thick sauce topped with minced pork.

LEMBING NOODLES

Lembing Noodles never fails to make it into the list of top 'must eats' at Sungai Lembing. Handmade from flour and water, these noodles are charcoal cooked till soft and served either dry or in a curried broth.

Luscious Laksa

Explore the delectable line-up of laksa noodles across the states

"People who love to eat are always the best people."

Julia Child

Any day of the week, rain or shine, locals and tourists will be flocking to roadside stalls and food courts in search of the delicious noodle broth dish known as laksa. Experts agree that there are two types of laksa: curry and assam. Curry laksa is made up of a broth base of coconut milk and spices, while assam laksa sports a sour, tamarind fish-soup base. Both are served with generous helpings of tofu, bean sprouts, seafood, chilies, slices of boiled egg, vegetables, and other goodies. The laksa noodles can be thick, white rice noodles, yellow wheat noodles, or the thinner, vermicelli noodles. The various laksa types are extremely popular in countries like Thailand and Singapore and also in other parts of the world as well. Which is the best one? You decide.

JOHOR LAKSA

A unique feature of Johor laksa is its use of spaghetti noodles instead of conventional white rice noodles, served in a spicy, milky broth made of coconut milk, fried spices, minced fish, garnished with Thai basil, mint leaves, daun kesum (polygonum or Vietnamese coriander), cucumber, bean sprouts and occasionally fresh cockles. The Lee Kee Johore Laksa stall first opened in 1946 and uses a tested laksa recipe that's been handed down from as early as post-World War 2 Johor Bahru.

TRY IT AT: i. Bumbu Asli Restaurant, 36-L, Jalan Kolam Ayer, Johor Bahru, Johor. ●
ii. Lee Kee Johore Laksa, 80, Jalan Badik, Taman Sri Tebrau, Johor Bahru, Johor.

Nyonya Laksa

NYONYA LAKSA - MELAKA

Nyonya Laksa—sometimes called 'Laksa Lemak' is ideal for spice and chili lovers. A brilliant fusion of the flavour of yellow noodles soaked in an amazing broth of chicken bones and prawn shells, mixed with shrimp paste, ginger, onions, garlic, spices, and of course, coconut milk.

TRY IT AT: i. 486 Baba Low, 486, Jalan Tengker, Melaka. ●

AURIA ABRAHAM

Food-blogger, Founder of Auria's Malaysian Kitchen

Most interesting laksa story?

Back home in Seremban, my parents would take me to our favorite curry mee stall. The same hawker sold Hainanese chicken. Later on, I found that the soup begins with a good homemade chicken broth. Our curry mee hawker must have used the chicken carcasses from one day's Hainanese chicken to make the laksa soup for the next day!

What's the easiest laksa for first time tasters and the most complex one for die-hards?

Easiest laksa? Laksa Lemak. The most complex: Definitely Assam Laksa. My least favorite laksa as a child but I began to enjoy this as I grew to love sour tastes and pungent broth.

What's the perfect drink to accompany your perfect laksa?

My favorite drink to go with a good spicy laksa is a Barli Limau Kosong! Thinking about it really makes me miss home.

If you were to take a road trip around Malaysia specifically to eat laksa, where would your first port of call be, and why?

Without a doubt, hands down: Penang for both Assam Laksa and Curry Mee! Throw in a baby oyster omelette and I'm in absolute foodie heaven!

Sarawak Laksa

SARAWAK LAKSA

Gaining worldwide appeal thanks to celebrity fans, stalls in Kuching serve this rice vermicelli dish in a spicy broth made from a paste of blended onions, garlic, ginger, lemongrass, spices and chilies, combined with coconut milk, roasted nuts, shredded omelet and prawns. The Choon Hui Café – which bears celebrity chef Anthony Bourdain's stamp of approval – opens at 7am to serve delicious Sarawak laksa.

ii. Choon Hui Café, 34, Jalan Ban Hock, Kuching, Sarawak.

Laksam

PAHANG LAKSA

This lesser-known laksa dish makes much use of coconut milk for its gravy base. It is made of thick white noodles in a minced fish broth flavoured with tamarind, ginger, onions, garlic and various ground spices, topped with crunchy raw vegetables. Join the hungry queues at the Sajian Pekan stall for a taste you won't forget.

TRY IT AT: i. Sajian Pekan, Food Court UTC Kuantan, Jalan Stadium, Pahang. ●
ii. Hoi Yin Restaurant 31, Jalan Teluk Cempedak, Kuantan, Pahang. ●

ASSAM LAKSA - PENANG

This one's a Baba-Nyonya influenced combo of shredded kembong fish (mackerel), tamarind, lemongrass, shrimp paste, and juicy white rice noodles, topped off with mint leaves, onions, chilies and shredded pineapple. Grab a small and completely satisfying bowl at the popular Pasar Air Itam Laksa stall close by to the Kek Lok Si Temple.

TRY IT AT: i. Pasar Air Itam Laksa, 1, Jalan Pasar, Ayer Itam, Penang. ●
ii. Taman Emas Coffee Shop, 1W Jalan Gottlieb, George Town, Penang.

LAKSAM - KELANTAN

This white-broth dish is hard to come by outside of Kelantan but is a favourite among Kelantanese. Its flat white rice noodles (kuey teow) are immersed in a white gravy made of minced mackerel fish fried with onions, garlic, ginger, black pepper, lemongrass, tamarind, kantan (torch-ginger) flower, shrimp paste and Vietnamese coriander. The coconut milk is added last, and the dish is topped with chopped long beans, cucumber, bean sprouts and blended chilies.

TRY IT AT: i. Sharifah's Nasi Kerabu and Laksam, Jalan Dato Lundang, Kota Bharu, Kelantan. ●
ii. By-T Laksam Restaurant 1335 Kampung Panji, Kota Bharu, Kelantan. ●

BENEFITS

SHARPENS YOUR FOCUS

Runners often report a runner's high when running. You get to switch off, go into a meditation-like state, which in turn can boost concentration, focus and fight depression and anxiety.

LIFTS YOUR MOOD

When you run, your brain releases two powerful mood-altering chemicals, namely endorphins and endocannabinoids, which actually make you feel good.

FIGHTS HEART DISEASE

By becoming a runner, you significantly reduce your risk of cardiovascular disease. The Journal of the American College of Cardiology published a landmark study revealing that a slow-speed five to 10 minute run per day can lower your risk of dying from heart disease by up to 50%.

STRENGTHENS YOUR BONES

Runners are half as likely to experience knee osteoarthritis compared with walkers, which may seem surprising, given that runners actively exert more stress on their joints during runs. However, a study in Medicine & Science in Sports & Exercise suggested that bones and cartilage only get stronger under the strain of running, just like your muscles.

TRANSFORMS YOUR BODY

As well as weight loss, running also helps define leg muscles, works your rectus abdominis (your six-pack muscles), your glutes and also your deeper core muscles, meaning you'll become a real head-turner!

BURNS CALORIES

An average person who weighs 70kg can burn about 12.2 calories per minute when running a 10-minute mile, on flat terrain alone. You'll burn even more calories when you throw in some up-hill runs to your daily routine.

MARK WILLIAMS

Head Coach of the Standard Chartered KL Marathon and brand ambassador for Adidas

What tips would you give to someone who is considering running for the first time?

The route to completing a marathon should be a journey. Only then can running become a lifelong habit. So, I would recommend that people make sure that they are physically able to start running by getting a full medical checkup. Secondly, get a good pair of running shoes. Shoes are the most important piece of equipment for a runner, so make sure that you get professional advice on which pair to purchase – and always buy a reputable brand!

If you are a newbie runner, how do you stay motivated to keep on running?

Involve others! For example, join a running club or just involve yourself with people of a similar mindset, like those wanting to start running. This is so much easier to do these days with social media.

Dedicated runners speak of the stress-relieving and meditative powers of the sport. True?

Yes, correct to a certain degree, but I have come across a minority of people who seem, for want of a better description, to be physiologically addicted to exercise.

What is your happiest memory of running?

Breaking the Hong Kong Half Marathon national record in Incheon in South Korea in 2005. The culmination of many years of hard training felt as if it had really paid off at that moment!

What is your dream marathon?

The Great Wall Marathon in China.

Keeping Up With The Joneses

Great music and a roadtrip make the perfect combo, as do this issue's featured musicians, RyötJones.

Kyren Thomas

5 MINUTES WITH RYÖTJONES

Meet RyötJones, a big band with a big sound. It all started with jamming sessions initiated by 'Deo (Karmawan, electric guitars) who met Kyren Thomas after a gig. Four months after forming their eight-member band, they entered the 'Rock the House' talent competition only to steal the grand prize at the finale eight weeks later. To say 2016 was the break-out year for RyötJones would be something of an understatement. So infectious was their blend of funk and soul that the band were soon lined up to play increasingly bigger gigs across the country, with record labels fighting for their signatures. Now, the funksters are set to release their debut single, Dancing Shoes. That said, we caught up with the group's energetic frontman, Kyren Thomas.

Who or what inspires you?

When it comes to RyötJones, all our inspirations vary. We try to put a new spin on genres you don't see many young people in KL getting into. Internationally we look to the likes of James Brown, Earth Wind and Fire, BB King, Prince, Jamiroquai, Alabama Shakes, and Bruno Mars. Locally we're massively influenced by the likes of P. Ramlee, Salammusik, Tilu, QSound and Darren Ashley. I reckon we've just taken inspiration from people who've made music at its purest in terms of expression, people who have stayed true to what they do.

In what positive ways has the Malaysian music scene changed?

The local music scene's biggest change came from it acting as a melting pot for all kinds of music. We see people from all genres and even different art forms coming together and collaborating. Today, listening to local music has become cool again.

What influenced your single Dancing Shoes and what sort of vibe does it have?

Dancing Shoes best describes the band's main goal of musical expression. We want people dancing at our shows, moving and singing along. It's just a darn good time accompanied by real danceable music that isn't generated by clicking buttons on a computer screen. It's one of our more pop-influenced songs, but still carries that big band heavy brass nature of RyötJones. It's an old school sound with a new school influence.

What excites you most about the music scene right now?

The collaborations between artists from all genres of music. Even artists from different forms of media are collaborating to make amazing works which enhance local productions, be it from video/photographers to artists and writers. It's become one massive collaboration within the art scene.

Who would be your dream collaboration?

As of now our wishlist of collaborations with musicians would definitely include QSound, Acap from Salammusik, Darren Ashley, Mira from Tilu, and Sonaone. We're even looking at young hip-hop acts like Kid Santhe and Airliftz.

RYÖTJONES IS LISTENING TO

MALIBU ANDERSON PAAK

As one of RyötJones' favourite albums of the moment, this is Paak's best work to date. However, it isn't easy to categorise, with the former Dr. Dre protégé blending funk, soul and R&B in amongst his breezy bass lines. Its range and depth ensured both critical and popular acclaim, as well as a Grammy nomination.

LIVE AT THE APOLLO JAMES BROWN AND THE FAMOUS FLAMES

Recorded in 1962, which was paid for, incidentally, by Brown himself, the record company was initially unwilling to release this. However, after being persuaded by Brown, the album became an enormous success, and is still cited in Rolling Stone magazine as one of the best 500 albums ever made (it was named at number 25). The recording might not be flawless, but this is James Brown at his irrepressible best.

Drivability aside, the BR-V has earned a 5-star ASEAN NCAP** safety rating and is equipped with Dual Front SRS Airbags, Vehicle Stability Assist (VSA), Hill Start Assist (HSA), Anti-lock Braking System (ABS), Electronic Brake Distribution (EBD) and ISO Fix. Whether you are ferrying children or the elderly, the complete safety technologies is an added advantage.

As a car that is extremely versatile, the BR-V also boasts the biggest boot in its class with a 539-litre*** cargo space. Whether you are an avid camper or frequent outstation traveller, the cargo space and flexible seats are perfect for spontaneity and comfort.

Its 3-row seating capacity makes it easy to accommodate impromptu plans with anyone. When you are not occupying all three rows, the seats can be configured in multiple ways to give you maximum flexibility. As any parent with small children knows, having space for car seats and extra storage is essential for long journeys.

The third row is adjustable to a 50:50 Tilt & Full Tumble, which means it can be laid flat or folded to a fully tumbled position. With this configuration, you can pack for a weeklong balik kampung, a picnic party at the park and still have room for all your children's must-haves.

Passengers on the second row can also adjust the seats to their comfort by sliding it backward or forward using the Front Back Slide, or tilt the seats with a 60:40 One Touch Tilt & Tumble for quicker access to the third row. If you have a busy family life, you will start depending on these seats to mobilise your family with ease.

The All-New BR-V is available in Taffeta White, Lunar Silver Metallic, Modern Steel Metallic, Dark Ruby Red Pearl and a brand new colour, Golden Brown Metallic. Customisation kits are also available courtesy of Modulo and Honda genuine accessories. The model is now available for booking and test drive at all Honda Authorised Dealer. # WHEN THE BEST BECOMES BETTER

The perfect ride for every Malaysian just got upgraded!

The Honda City has long enjoyed its fame on Malaysian roads since it was introduced in 2001. The current 4th Generation model has exceeded more than 100,000 units since its launch in 2014 and remains the company's best-selling model.

Across the generations, the City has always been synonymous with affordable innovation. Its class-leading safety, comfort, drivability and sophisticated looks made it a preferred choice for most Malaysian drivers seeking enhanced value for their money.

The newly face-lifted City comes with even more aggressive styling and features, and looks every bit the trendsetter it is supposed to be. The new Dual Tone Alloy Wheels, LED Head Lights* with LED Daytime Running Lights, and LED Front Fog Lights* give it an exciting and lively presence on the road.

To provide better value and driving convenience, new functions have been added, such as the Paddle Shift**, Multi-Angle Reverse Camera** and Auto Retractable Side Mirrors with Turning Lights**. The Smart Entry, Push Start Button and Steering Audio Switch have also been made available for all variants.

Inside, the interior is given a fashionable leather treatment, from the seats, to the armrest, door panel, steering wheel and gear knob. Intuitive functions like the Touch Panel Auto Air Conditioning** and touch screen on the 6.8-Inch Display Audio** equips you with a smart ride.

Using the same 1.5L SOHC i-VTEC engine with the Continuous Variable Transmission (CVT) under Honda's Earth Dreams Technology, you will get the best driving performance and fuel economy. Coupled with the ECON mode and Eco Assist, the City is a good choice if you want to help you stretch your mileage.

Improved safety is also one of the key upgrades for the new City. Not only is it equipped with six airbags* but Vehicle Stability Assist (VSA), Hill Start Assist (HSA), and Emergency Stop Signal (ESS) are now standard features available in all variants.

The new City will be available in Lunar Silver Metallic, Taffeta White, Dark Ruby Red Pearl, Modern Steel Metallic, and Crystal Black Pearl. See it for yourself and experience the new by booking a test drive at any of the Honda Authorised Dealer nationwide.

LOOK SHARP AND UNLEASH YOUR STYLE

When supreme performance is matched with quirky fun.

Boon Siew Honda have recently unveiled its first low cc fun model that edges on being an easy-to-ride Fun bike while projecting a sharp presence on the streets. With its bold, new look and "Street Fighter" stance, the new MSX125 looks eye-catching and more than ready to deliver maximum fun.

Present at the official launch at the Sepang International Circuit last December 2016 were special guests, Khairul Idham Pawi, a Honda Team Asia rider for 2016 Moto3 Championship of Argentina & Germany GP, and Mohd Zaghwan Zaidi, rider of Musashi Boon Siew Honda Racing Team and two times ARRC Champion.

The new MSX125 (Mini Street X-Treme 125) was designed to be a little quirky on the streets as you zip around for thrills and revel in its exhilarating energy.

Since it was first introduced to the world in 2013, the MSX125 have had its share of admirers among young riders for being the perfect fun bike with attitude. The redesigned model for 2017 looks more aggressive than its predecessor with sportier tyres and sleek LED headlights and taillights.

Riders may be inclined to test out the updated 125cc version of the air-cooled single cylinder 4-stroke engine, which delivers a maximum power of 7.2kW at 7,000rpm and maximum torque of 11Nm at 5,250rpm. Even the 5.7-litre fuel tank is boosted with a highly efficient Programmed-Fuel Injection (PGM-FI) to improve fuel economy.

As a first bike for new riders, you will gain riding confidence from its sturdy chassis that results in stable manoeuvring. The strong and durable steel mono-backbone frame may look classy but it is rigid enough to take on any terrains. You can also get a comprehensive view of the speedometer, twin trip meters, fuel gauge and clock via the ultra-modern LCD digital dashboard.

If you are ready to embrace a new attitude, there are limitless ways to customise the bike and create a true masterpiece beyond the conventional accessories. Visit any of the Boon Siew Honda showrooms to discover how to unleash your street style and revel in the rider-friendly MSX125.
